

2008 ICF Annual International Conference

November 12 - 15, 2008 Montréal, Québec, Canada

See you in Montréal!

Want to be stretched, inspired, and spend time connecting with other professional coaches? Come to Montréal, Québec, Canada, November 12-15, and join in fellowship with nearly 1,700 of your coaching peers for the Annual International ICF Conference!

This year's conference offers attendees hands-on pre-conference workshops, innovative breakout sessions, world class keynote speakers, and many other networking opportunities.

- Over 40 breakout educational offerings—attend sessions based on one of seven focus areas;
- “Le Magie du Canada”—taste the cuisine, delight in the community and experience the magic of Montréal during this special opening event. It is the perfect way to kick off your conference experience.
- Daily breakfast buffets—gather and share a meal before a full day of learning opportunities.
- Special luncheons—meet over lunch and discuss topics of common interest.

- A Networking Expo and Author Book Signing Extravaganza—meet authors and connect with others in a pleasant and light-hearted atmosphere.

- A Global Rendezvous gala event—round out the special conference events on Saturday night with a reception, three-course seated dinner and an evening of dancing to unwind and relax after the busy conference schedule. Business and cocktail attire please.

A special “early-bird”/discounted full registration fee is available until July 31. But hurry; after this time, normal registration fees will apply. Register at Coachfederation.org.

Visit the ICF Conference Web site, accessible from the ICF home page (Coachfederation.org) for more information on travel and hotel arrangements, things to do in Montréal and the official conference schedule. The latest information on the ICF Conference will be housed in this location—visit often as updates will be posted regularly.

CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Peter Senge

Matthieu Ricard

Vandana Shiva